A black and white photograph showing four people seated at a table in the foreground. The table is covered with a white, possibly lace-trimmed, cloth. From left to right, there is a man in a dark suit, a woman in a light-colored dress, another man in a dark suit, and a fourth man in a dark suit. They are all looking towards the center of the table, appearing to be in conversation. The background is crowded with many other people, mostly men in suits and women in light-colored dresses, suggesting a large formal event or party. The lighting is somewhat dim, and the overall tone is formal and social.
